

POSITION: Senior Level Airport Environmental Planner and Project Manager

L&B, a global airport planning and consulting firm operating in the U.S. and internationally, is currently seeking Senior Level Airport Environmental Planner and Project Manager for large-scale planning assignments within its global organization with five plus years of experience.

The senior-level airport environmental planners and project managers will lead teams of planners working on aviation projects throughout the world. They will prepare all levels of NEPA documentation (Categorical Exclusions, Environmental Assessments, and Environmental Impact Statements), Part 150 Noise Compatibility Plans, air quality assessments, off-airport land use plans. This will require a candidate that can manage projects and assignments, including day-to-day communication with clients and in-house technical staff. They will provide client and project management services on projects related to the aviation market and expand business prospects in respective regions.

Responsibilities: performs overall project management on aviation market projects; develops strong client relationships; establishes, monitors, and reports monthly project financials; and develops project proposals, presentations, and marketing materials as required.

Successful candidate will have strong verbal and written communication skills and a high level of software experience, including airport planning and environmental simulation tools; GIS/CAD; and a willingness to travel.

Qualified candidates should submit resume and cover letter to: hr@landrum-brown.com. No phone calls or agency phone calls please.

Please include job title of Senior Level Airport Environmental Planner and Project Manager in your submission.

EEO/M/F/D/V